Rajput Indian Cuisine

SUFFOLK, Virginia (September 19, 2014) The public is invited to attend the grand opening of Rajput Indian Cuisine in Harbour View. A ribbon cutting ceremony will take place on Sunday, September 21, at 11 a.m. at 5860 Harbour View Boulevard, Suite A-1. Ralph S. Northam, Virginia's Lieutenant Governor, and Linda T. Johnson, Suffolk Mayor, are scheduled to participate. A lunch reception will immediately follow the ceremony.

Suffolk's first Indian food restaurant features dozens of authentic entrée selections. Lunch buffet specialties include various meat and vegetarian or vegan specialties and the dinner menu features revolving traditional northern and southern Indian menu items. An assortment of desserts is also available.

Paul Chhabra, Owner, is proud to offer the same great ethnic dishes to diners in Suffolk as he does at his other locations in Hampton Roads. "Everyone has been so warm and welcoming of our business since we first began working towards opening this new restaurant," remarked Chhabra. "We are thrilled to be part of the supportive Suffolk community."

"Rajput Indian Cuisine gives the residents and visitors of Suffolk another outstanding locally-owned and operated dining option," said Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson. The new restaurant is a great fit to the culinary atmosphere developing here in the fastest growing city in Hampton Roads."

Rajput Indian Cuisine provides dine-in, take out and catering options.

Hours of operation are from Monday through Friday, from 11:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday, from Noon to 10 p.m. To learn more, call 757.484.4444, go to www.rajputonline.com, or find them on facebook.
