Grand Opening for Chavis Collision Repair

SUFFOLK, Virginia (November 1, 2013) Chavis Collision Repair Center has opened for business at 3730 Pruden Blvd., in Suffolk. To celebrate, they are hosting a Grand Opening – Ribbon Cutting ceremony on November 2nd, at 10 a.m., with Vice Mayor Charles Brown in attendance. Also, throughout the day on November 2nd visitors can enjoy music, refreshments, vendors, cash raffle to benefit the Wounded Warriors and a special classic car “Cruise-In” on display.

Formerly known as Allred’s Collision, Chavis Collision Repair is a full-service automobile collision and repair body shop. The four full-time mechanics at Chavis have a combined over 75 years of repair experience. The mechanics perform framework repairs, laser painting and alignment for any make and model of vehicle. The center provides towing and rental car services and works with insurance companies on providing estimates or filing claims.

“Our entire staff is so excited to be introducing Chavis Collision Repair Center to the Suffolk community,” remarked President Larry Chavis. “We want people to know how much quality means to us, and we look forward to the opportunity to serve their needs.”

“We are so pleased Chavis Collision Repair Center has decided to continue to grow with us here in Suffolk,” noted Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson. “We wish them much success.”

The center is open Monday through Friday, from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. They can be reached by calling 757.539.1501.
