Maya Couture on Main: A Bridal Boutique Opens in Downtown Suffolk

SUFFOLK, Virginia (January 13, 2014) Maya Couture on Main: A Bridal Boutique will soon be open for business in historic Downtown Suffolk. Store owner Maya Holihan will officially open her doors with a Ribbon Cutting-Grand Opening ceremony, with special guest Suffolk Vice Mayor Charles F. Brown, on Tuesday, January 14th at 1 p.m. The event is open to the public.

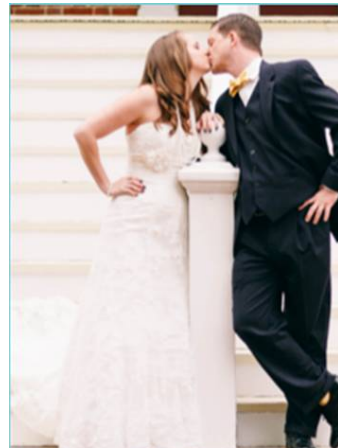

Maya Couture on Main: A Bridal Boutique will evoke the look and feel of a true historic bridal boutique. The store will stock designer gowns and will also serve clients who may be pressed for time and want to custom order or design their own gown. The store will also support the award-winning Norfolk flagship store with the intention that the two stores share clients and provide an increased level of service and convenience to their clients.

When owner Maya Holihan moved in 2003 from New York City, leaving a bridal management position with Vera Wang at her Madison Avenue store, she knew she wanted to open her own bridal boutique in Hampton Roads. The Suffolk expansion furthers her vision, love of weddings and commitment to engaged couples. "The more I visit Suffolk, the more I fall in love with it," said Holihan. "I am honored and excited to bring Maya Couture to the City and to contribute to the economic revitalization of beautiful historic downtown."

“We are so pleased Maya Couture on Main: A Bridal Boutique has decided to invest in Downtown Suffolk,” stated Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson. “Small, independent businesses are the true backbone of our community and we appreciate the reputation and focus on customer service they will bring with them to the new Suffolk boutique.”

Maya Couture on Main: A Bridal Boutique’s wedding gowns are priced from $800 to $3500. They also provide wedding attire for bridesmaids, groom, party and special occasion attire.
