Edward Jones Expands to Historic Downtown Suffolk

SUFFOLK, Virginia (October 29, 2015) – The financial services firm Edward Jones has opened, expanded and relocated to a new office at 220 North Main Street in Downtown Suffolk. Owner Justin Sorensen and his staff are hosting a Grand Opening – Ribbon Cutting ceremony on Friday, October 30th, at 11 a.m. to celebrate. Vice Mayor Leroy Bennett will be on hand for the event.

The Downtown office is housed in a historic former clergy house which was built in 1850. The new location features 1,500 square-feet, which represents a considerable addition from the former location on Holland Road, where they operated for 15 years.

It was important for Justin Sorensen, who was born, raised and currently resides in Suffolk, to continue to serve as a financial advisor to an ever-growing number of Suffolk clients in a comfortable and convenient location. “I am excited to be opening an Edward Jones office in historic Downtown Suffolk, because I really see a need for the type of services we provide,” Sorensen said. “Our location concerns itself exclusively with the needs of small-business owners and individual investors, and I’m happy to be bringing that kind of personalized service to this community.”

“It is always great news when a company expands due to their outstanding success,” noted Suffolk Mayor Linda T. Johnson. “Justin’s investment in Historic Downtown Suffolk is welcomed and celebrated as his staff's services will enhance the quality of life of our citizens and improve our business community."
