Virginia Plastic Surgery Announces Grand Opening

SUFFOLK, Virginia (June 17, 2021) – Roshan P. Morbia MD, who has been serving the residents of Hampton Roads with a wide range of plastic surgery procedures, has opened his own independent facility. Virginia Plastic Surgery is located at 1037 Champions Way, Suite 600, in Harbour View. To celebrate, he and his team are hosting a Grand Opening – Ribbon Cutting ceremony on Saturday, June 19th at 2 p.m. Vice Mayor Leroy Bennett will be on hand for the event, which is open to the public.

Virginia Plastic Surgery offers a full range of aesthetic and reconstructive plastic surgery services, including medical spa, non-invasive and minimally invasive procedures. The new space is outfitted with advanced, cutting-edge technology for Dr. Morbia’s board-certified procedures.

After careful planning and build-out, Dr. Morbia selected the Harbour View location to create convenience for both current and prospective patients. “I would like to thank the Suffolk community for warmly welcoming our business and my family from the very start,” said Dr. Morbia. “We are excited to provide an exceptional experience and results with a focus on service to our clients for years to come.”

“Access to quality health care is an important community asset,” said Mayor Michael Duman. “Virginia Plastic Surgery provides an important service to our population. We are confident this facility will have a positive, lasting impact on the well-being of future generations.”

Customers can call Virginia Plastic Surgery directly with questions or to book an appointment. Their phone number is 757-997-7VPS (877).
